

CHINOOK CAMPING CLUB

Chinook Camping Club Code of Ethics

Preamble to the Code

Each member of the Chinook Camping Club, as defined in the Bylaws, agrees to the conditions of membership contained therein, and is obligated to abide by its Code of Ethics. The Code reflects our endeavors to be good neighbors, careful, responsible motor coach owners, and good citizens of our communities. Consistent adherence to the Code of Ethics is desired to ensure that the actions of all members reflect favorably upon the organization.

Requirements of the Code of Ethics

1. Personal Responsibilities. To maintain a favorable public image of the organization, Club members should maintain the highest degree of personal conduct and at all times respect the rights and privacy of other members and the general public on and off the highways.

2. Vehicles. Each Club member should:

a. Maintain required registration and licensing of the Chinook coach, and carry proper amounts of insurance coverage.

b. Keep the coach in proper and safe mechanical condition regarding lights, tires, mirrors, batteries, liquid propane containers, fire extinguishers, brakes and other systems as described in the owners manual of each coach.

3. While Traveling. Members should:

a. Obey all federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances governing the ownership and use of family motor coaches.

b. Never operate motor home in an unsafe manner or unsafe mechanical condition.

c. Avoid blocking roads or becoming a traffic hazard for others by pulling aside to allow following vehicles to pass.

d. Use caution when traveling in groups, maintaining appropriate distances between coaches for safe passage.

e. Secure all interior and exterior objects before travel, including tank covers and valves, utility equipment, antennas and compartments; dispose of refuse properly.

4. While Camping. Members should always comply with rules of national, state, and local parks and campgrounds regarding noise, pets, waste disposal, smoking, campfires, and the protection of the natural beauty of any area. If possible, members should always obtain local permission to remain overnight in any public area not designated for camping.
